Business Summary

Tlaquepaque Arts and Crafts Village

The Artist's Kitchen occupies a prominent, 2,200 square foot, leased retail space within the internationally renowned Tlaquepaque Arts and Crafts Village at 336 State Route 179, Unit C-11 in Sedona, Arizona. This prime location places the business in the heart of a heavily visited shopping village, known for its unique blend of art galleries, boutiques, and artisan shops. The village draws high foot traffic from both locals and tourists, ensuring consistent visibility and accessibility for the business.

Tlaquepaque Arts and Crafts Village is authentically fashioned after a traditional Mexican village, featuring vine-covered stucco walls, cobble-stoned walkways, and magnificent arched entryways, creating a unique and inviting atmosphere for visitors. The Artist's Kitchen is an integral part of this vibrant community and participates in many local events sponsored by the village.

The village, established in the 1970s, has been a Sedona landmark and features over 50 galleries and shops, bordered by superb restaurants. Given its strategic location and the village's status as a top Sedona attraction, the leased facility offers significant advantages for a retail business.

Interior

Sedona, Arizona

Sedona, Arizona, nestled amidst the stunning red rock formations and pine forests, is a world-renowned tourist destination. Annually, the city attracts over 3 million visitors, drawn by its breathtaking landscapes, vibrant arts and culture scene, and opportunities for outdoor recreation. Recent data indicates a notable increase in high-income visitors, with 25% of tourists coming from households earning over $250,000 annually, signifying a growing demographic of affluent travelers.

The city's economy is heavily dependent on tourism, which accounts for 77% of Sedona's sales tax collections and contributes significantly to the local economy, generating over a billion dollars in annual economic impact and supporting around 10,000 jobs. Beyond its natural beauty, Sedona offers a diverse range of attractions, including world-class resorts, unique shops, art galleries, and spiritual and metaphysical offerings. Popular activities include hiking, mountain biking, jeep tours, and exploring famous sites like the Chapel of the Holy Cross and the Tlaquepaque Arts and Crafts Village.

Sedona's commitment to sustainable tourism is evident, with efforts to manage visitor impact and enhance the experience for both tourists and residents. While the city's population is relatively small, around 9,770 people with a median age of 59, the continuous influx of visitors, including a substantial number of Arizona residents and a growing international segment, creates a strong and consistent customer base for local businesses. The emphasis on outdoor activities, arts, and cultural festivals further contributes to a thriving and dynamic market.
